

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS21497

The proposed concurrent resolution honors Mildred Rinker Bailey, who was raised on the family farm in DeSmet, Idaho, was an enrolled member of the Coeur d'Alene Tribe, was widely recognized as the "First Girl Singer" to perform with the big bands throughout America, and was a true pioneer of the American jazz and blues musical idiom. The resolution recognizes her artistic contributions to this unique musical genre and her deserved place in the Jazz Hall of Fame.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no fiscal impact.
